NRPB (Non-Rescue Plot Bunny)

I was thinking of a lingerie party for the women at some point. It would be after Dr. Tracy gets better, of course. A nice way to break the ice for Heather and anyone new joining. This would be a good idea for all the ladies since they had their own challenges during recent rescues.

Also, I was planning on a dinner party for interested parties to help fund the school damaged by the tornadoes which would include the Kennedys and the Tracys.
