Y'know, we've never had any outsiders in close proximity to the island when a rescue's been called in. (Except maybe the BBwBBB, but she and the boat that brought her probaby arrived well after the Thunderbirds took off.)

What do you think would happen if someone was in close proximity? One of the comic book stories dealt with it, but it was a nice elderly couple, and they required rescuing later on. What if it was a bunch of smart-alec deep sea fishermen from nearby Moyla? (Which is another thing we haven't used much; we've sent our crews to Christchurch instead - though I'm not sure Moyla is canon, except maybe in the comic books.) How far out do you think Jeff's "territorial waters" would go?

Interesting things to think about!
