Okay, some of these I pulled from the YUKU site. I know there were more, but I have no idea where in the morass of messages those might be. Of course, we've used the most appropriate one for Chapter 16, the one we've had in store since God knows when and have threatened to use many times before.

So, what new chapter titles could we use? Here are the ones left from last time:

Melding of Minds

Lengthening the Chain

Further Adjustments

Cook Cooks up a Storm

Everything Falls Into Place

On and On

Challenges and Additions

Rising Tides

Taking New Directions

Just One Darn Thing After Another

A Time to Give Thanks

Where's The Turkey?

This Chapter's Title Has Nothing, Repeat Nothing, To Do With Toast.
